THE ARTIFICIAL SUN

On 4/8/2024 the organic sun for this 3rd dimension playing field of Tara earth was replaced/shut down/hidden, and replaced with an artificial sun. Not only was the event caught on video of the switch of these two suns, but there is also video showing the very clear geometric patterns of the new sun, both seen here (@auntie_coolette /

WHAT IS THE SUN, ACTUALLY?

The sun is a portal that is the gateway to this simulation for the delivery of energy and commands that come in the form of neutrinos that are energy packets 'in stasis' that must be activated once across the threshold of the sun called the 'veil'. The neutrinos carry thought 'particles' of manifestation that come from the higher selves of each person down here in the simulation. I don't expect you to understand what that means yet, but the sun isn't a ball of fire in the sky. There has never been a single photo of the sun taken outside of our atmosphere in all time. Not one, because it generates no light and no heat. It is called the black sun.

Neutrinos come into our breathable atmosphere and strike deuterium microcrystals in our air which creates a 'neutrino event' that creates a brand-new anion ion. In this process, the microcrystal emits light and heat which illuminates the simulation field. More neutrinos pass across this plane per day than would be needed to run all the energy in the simulation for a year. That anion ion now contains the message from your higher self about what it wants you to do or create down here, and the particles inside that are spinning around bouncing off the 'shell' of the particle is the energy to create that thing. The 'shell' is a geometric template called a Keylon. They are the 'Keys of Heaven'.

Along with these commands from your higher selves coming in telling you it is time to wake up and ascend during this time, are special energy particles that are flooded across simulation fields to prepare them for natural ascension cycles called carbon 7 (not on earth's periodic table of elements).

These are super high frequency particles to prepare the plane and/or lifeforce for their next level of the simulation that causes your cells to accelerate in spin, raising you to the next level of awareness so you are able to see the new reality field.

All dimensions, all planes ('planets), all worlds are holographically displayed in the same pin-dot as each other.

The only thing separating them is frequency spectrums that are like television channels. The TV doesn't move somewhere else when you change the channel, the signal does. There is no such thing as space and no such thing as material matter.

If someone wants to shut off these messages and higher frequency to block the current transition of this operating plane and this final group of beings given the chance to move higher within the time matrix, as your captors have done successfully now 26x, then shutting down the wave portal and replacing the light with artificial illumination would be a very good way of successfully blocking the shift for the 27th time.

With that said, this shift is going to happen, regardless of what the invader races do this time, because it is being backed by the collective of Prime Creator and no longer up for manipulation. As I've mentioned, this is the last ascension cycle that will ever happen within the Gaia time matrix and Tara earth is being personally protected by not only the aether itself this time, but by hundreds of thousands of warships parked next to the sun to assure her safety to deliver her without question to the next density where she will host dimensions 4-6.

No force within the cosmeias can stop this shift and the invaders will lose. It is only a matter of it playing out to its ultimate conclusion.

This message will only be seen by your eyes if not shared, and if you want to reference this article again later, you will need to cut and paste it in your own notes off line, as it will surely be erased. This is the most accurate translation of these events I am aware of at this time.
